SUBJECT: RWANDA, DRC ISSUE JOINT COMMUNIQUE IN NAIROBI ADOPTING JOINT APPROACH TO ENDING CONFLICT IN THE KIVUS

¶1. (U) On November 10, the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Government of Rwanda agreed to a Joint Communiqué in French and English that confirms a common approach to end the threat posed to peace and stability in both countries and the Great Lakes Region. (Note: Full text of Joint Communiqué is at para 5. End note). The communiqué reiterates previous bilateral agreements between the GDRC and Rwanda as well as regional agreements made in the context of the Tripartite Plus Commission regarding neutralization of the ex-Far/Interahamwe (see footnote one), but also states that the presence of irregular Congolese armed groups in eastern DRC pose an equal threat to peace and security in the DRC and the entire Great Lakes region. The GDRC was represented by Foreign Minister Mbusa and President Adviser Ngwej. The Government of Rwanda was represented by Foreign Minister Murigande and President Special Envoy to the Great Lakes, Ambassador Sezibera.

¶2. (U) The communiqué was achieved after almost 9 hours of negotiations between the Government of the DRC and Rwanda representatives facilitated by the Assistant Secretary General for Department of Political Affairs, Haile Menkerios. Menkerios was supported by the MONUC Force Commander, the Chief of Staff for the UN/Resident Representative for DRC, and the Political Affairs officer for the Department of Peacekeeping Operations in New York. The communiqué was witnessed by the European Union Special Envoy, Roland van der Geer, and State Department Senior Advisor to Assistance Secretary Frazer for Conflict Resolution, Timothy Shortley.

¶3. (U) The decision to hold the meeting in Nairobi to reconcile the competing FDLR plans between the GDRC and the GOR came after UN/DPA Haile Menkerios met with President Kabila on November 3. Menkerios proposed to President Kabila that he reconcile the Congolese plan and the comments from Rwanda on the margins of the International Conference on the Great Lakes in Nairobi to avoid endless exchange of proposals and counter proposals. Both the GDRC and GoR appreciated the efforts of the UN and the flexibility of both the EU and the U.S. to attend and witness the agreement. End comment.

¶4. (SBU) Comment: Although the discussions were largely cordial and mild tempered, many heated exchanges occurred around the alleged lack of will by the DRC, and the failing of the international community, to deal with the FDLR since 1994 regardless of the many agreements concluded since the 1999 Lusaka Accords. Similarly, the DRC charged Rwanda with failing to cut off support for Nkunda and prevent support being provided by any group. Both the DRC and Rwanda asked for the international community to provide adequate support to deal with the FDLR and the illegal armed groups in the DRC and to ensure adequate protection of civilian populations. Both DRC and Rwanda also challenged MONUC to be more aggressive against negative forces and illegal militias in eastern DRC.

¶5. The full text of the agreement is as follows:

Begin text of joint communique:

Joint Communique of the Government of the Democratic Republic of Congo and the Government of the Republic of Rwanda on a common approach to end the threat posed to peace and stability in both countries and the Great Lakes Region

We, the Government of the Democratic Republic of Congo and the Government of the Republic of Rwanda, having met in Nairobi on 9 November 2007, have agreed on a common approach to address the threat posed to our common security and stability by the ex-FAR/Interahamwe. The meeting was facilitated by the United Nations, in the presence of United States and the European Union.

We, consistent with the commitments made in the Lusaka Cease Fire Agreement of 1999, which set out modalities for the disarmament and repatriation of all foreign armed groups, including the ex-FAR/Interahamwe, in the territory of the DRC; the bilateral agreement signed in Pretoria on 30 July 2002 between the Governments of the DRC and Rwanda; the Principles on Good Neighbourly Relations and Cooperation between the DRC and Burundi, Rwanda and Uganda of 25 September 2003; the Pact on Security, Stability and Development in the Great Lakes Region of 15 December 2006; and the various commitments made within the framework of the Tripartite Plus Commission, including the commitments made by the Tripartite-plus Members in Lubumbashi on 8 June 2007 and Kampala on 17 September 2007; to eliminate the threat posed by illegal armed groups through peaceful and military means, taking into account the action plan presented by the Government of the DRC to address the problem of the ex-FAR/Interahamwe on 3 October 2007 and the response and counter-proposal made on this plan by the Government of Rwanda:

Have reiterated the following:

KINSHASA 00001267 002 OF 004
